The position

The Channel Marketing & Events Associate is responsible for planning, developing and managing marketing activities with managed partner accounts for Ergotron branded products. This position will also be responsible for email, web and collateral development for channel partners as well as organizing events and trainings.

Responsibilities

- Provide first hand marketing support to managed channel partners to develop channel marketing plans, execute marketing activities funded by MDF and monitor the ROI of the activities.
- Create on-going email communications and account specific collateral/graphics for channel partners regarding new product launches, pricing incentives, product updates, and industry news for the Ergotron brand.
- Collaborate with sales teams to execute agreed to account plans.
- Deliver account specific sales tools and collateral to reinforce Ergotron messaging.
- Assist in development and execution of Ergotron branded product promotions.
- Support Big Bang Product Introductions and manage channel specific collateral (presentations/catalogs) and promotional programs.
- Coordinate trade shows, vendor fairs and training activities as needed.
- Coordinate translations for local language (Dutch or German) and work with sales support to provide translated marketing collateral.
- Coordinate Social Media activity pertaining to channel accounts and region.

Position Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree in Business or Marketing.
- Two to three years combined marketing and/or sales experience.
- Demonstrated ability to work in a multi-functional team environment, providing leadership and driving activities to completion.
- Excellent communication skills, with a tendency towards salesmanship.
- Ability to multi-task under tight deadlines. Keen sense of urgency defines the qualified candidate. Effective presentation skills to all levels of corporate contacts.
- Exceptional project management and organizational skills.
- Excellent writing and verbal communication skills, proofreading and copy editing.
- Fluent German or Dutch speaker, proficient in English preferred.
- Ability to travel.
- Must be able to perform the physical requirements of the job as described for the position.

Our offer

At Ergotron, we are committed to moving you forward with leading benefits and reward programs. Beyond a fast-paced, innovative work environment, we offer a comprehensive and competitive pay and benefits package, including but not limited to:

- Annual Salary between EUR 35.000 – EUR 45.000.
- Company sponsored pension plan.
- 8% holiday allowance.
- Bonus Program.
- Tuition reimbursement.
- Travel allowance or a NS business card.
- Fisc Free.
- 25 holidays plus 11 public holidays.
- Ability to work from home.
